PUBLIC NOTICE

May 14, 2025

TO ALL USERS OF COPYRIGHTED MUSIC AND AUDIOVISUAL WORKS ISSUANCE AND IMPLEMENTATION OF JOINT LICENSES BY MCSK

The Kenya Copyright Board (KECOBO) has officially licensed the following Collective Management Organizations (CMOs) for 2025; Music Copyright Society of Kenya (MCSK), KAMP Copyright and Related Rights (KAMP), and Performing and Audiovisual Rights Society of Kenya (PAVRISK).

In line with KECOBO's directive, the Joint Licensing Framework is now fully operational. MCSK, leveraging its national reach, continues to issue Joint Licenses covering all rights in music and audiovisual works, as per the officially gazetted consolidated tariff structure. All users—including businesses, institutions, public transport, broadcasters, and digital platforms—are legally required to obtain a valid Joint License from MCSK to use copyrighted music or audiovisual content for commercial or public purposes.
